

Dear NBC Universal,

Your show, “The Real Housewives of New Jersey” on Bravo is mentally and morally offensive. Not just to the people of New Jersey but the entire viewing public. Here are the reasons that a show like this should not have even been created:

- 1) You make the “Jersey Shore” look darn near classy.
- 2) These people truly need psychiatric help.
- 3) One of them is a convicted felon.
- 4) It’s pretty sad when the kids are more mature than the parents.
- 5) Watching this show is equivalent to being verbally abused.
- 6) We fear for your cameramen’s lives.

Here in New Jersey, we take pride in our state and when a network like yours airs something like this we don’t stand for it. So, for the love of New Jersey, take this show off the air.

Sincerely,

N.J. Resident & Proud supporter of JerseyDoesntStink.com
